News Release: The Nadas Headlining Star Spangled Spectacular

Storm Lake, Iowa (March 1, 2022) – Popular five-man band The Nadas are set to perform at the Star Spangled Spectacular at 7 p.m. on Sunday, July 3 at the Sunset Park Band Shell.

The Nadas are Iowa's signature alt-rock-country band, selling more than 200,000 albums through their own label, Authentic Records. The band mixes country, rock, alternative, and indie with flawless songwriting and catchy melodies for a crowd-pleasing experience.

"We think the crowd is going to love The Nadas," says Brandon Frank, Star Spangled Spectacular 2022 commodore. "It's a priority of ours to book great music for Storm Lake's largest summer event, and this is just the beginning of all the fun we're beginning to plan."

The band brews up a mix of Stones-era "Country Honk" with a healthy dose of 90s alternative rock: distorted, twangy, plaintive—and always melodic. The band writes music evocative of its home state: level-headed and grounded, ambitious, and soaring. The Nadas have churned out 11 studio albums as a five-piece, logging thousands of miles.

Jeff Bowles, 2022 commodore, says the band has a significant following. "If you haven't already seen The Nadas play, they're going to be one of your new favorites. We couldn't be more excited to bring them to Storm Lake, and we hope everyone has a great time." Crowd favorites include "Walk Away," "Templeton Rye," "Long Goodbye," "Carve Your Name," and "Meant To Be."

The Nadas will take the stage following the evening's classic Car Cruise and Kiddie Parade. Attendees are encouraged to bring lawn chairs and beverages to this family-friendly concert.
